Superintendent's Report

2015 Thoroughbred Limited convention is over and what a great convention it was. Each and every member should be proud of the job that they did to make this convention a great success. Without the hard work we could have never pulled this off. The Division received numerous complements. Going into the preparations there was a lot of doubts. But we pulled it off and even made a little money for the division. The totals are yet to be tabulated but from all the prelims we did make a little.

Some facts that you may not be aware of and I was surprised to find out, that we had a first that we achieved. I was told the ratio of Non Rail attendees to total attendees was the highest percentage of any convention by almost two times. We had 77 Non rail attendees and a total of 227 attendees. I believe the high attendance for the non rails was due to the many activities that Lexington and the surrounding areas had to offer. Several ladies told me that this was a great place to tour and they were having a great time touring around Lexington. We also sold out all of our bus tours. I heard the guys coming back from the TTI tour saying they would have paid twice as much for the tour. There were many complements from all the tours and thanks to all involved in the planning and execution. The photograph to the right was taken on the Norfolk Southern Delaplain/Rogers Gap yard tour. Pictured, center, is our Industrial Tours director Thomas Bookout along with the NS train master host to the right.

Words can't express my appreciation to Bruce DeMaeyer and all the work that he did to coordinate this massive mission. It was great knowing that he crossed every T and dotted every I. Thank You Bruce! Another big thanks goes to Tom Bensberg, webmaster, and Bob Belt, clinics, for all their hard work. Also, I wanted to say a special thank you to all the wives that helped with the convention. Without their assistance we would have been in some trouble with several parts of the convention. A special thanks to Bev Jaquith for taking care of the Hospitality room. I think she was there from start to finish every day.

We had four of our members to receive awards in the contests. Larry Smith and Bob Belt tied for first in Judged Structures. They had two beautiful models. Yours truly finished with a People's Choice award for Locomotive with my 1905 Shay. It was exciting to place the first time that I had entered and I learned a lot. Pat Gerstle received the Martha Newberry Award for his structure/display (in photo on page 3).

Lastly I want to thank the hotel and their staff. From the beginning, they delivered on every promised and delivered first class service. Even during their remodel, they kept telling us they would be ready and they were. The hotel was beautiful and I heard many complements.

We should all be proud of our division and we can hold our heads high. Thanks to all for a JOB WELL DONE.

Keeping modeling fun

The Thoroughbred Limited 2015 convention organization, as set up by Bruce DeMaeyer, and the participation by our Division 10 members was outstanding. The convention committee consisted of Stew Winstandley, Tom Krill, Lou Jaquith, Bob Belt, Larry Smith, Brian Jones, John Gorman, Bill Pausell, Bill Robbins, Thomas Bookout, Ed Butcher, Bob Ferguson, Rick Cobb, and Tom Bensberg; with support from other members, we all pulled off a very successful MCR convention.
